Cavalcade of Authors Information — If you are participating in the Cavalcade of Authors, scheduling for authors’ workshops is coming soon. We will keep you posted on the date as soon as we know, but it could possibly be as soon as the last week or two of January. As a result, time is running out to read four books by four different authors. Don’t wait to pick up your next book; stop by the library today and check one out.

Freezin’ for a Reason! - The Tri-Cities Polar Plunge is coming up quickly, this coming Saturday, January 16th. Team Kennewick Lions has MANY students who have said they plan to plunge or to simply support our team, so we should again have a great team effort in raising money to support 14,500 Special Olympics athletes in Washington State.

RTAC and Drafting Club LAN Party—will be on Martin Luther King Day, Monday, January 18th, from 11 am to 5 pm. The entry fee is $5 and pizza is $2 extra. You can sign up for the Party in Room 115 or 201. We will have games such as Call of Duty 2, Hearthstone, Heroes of the Storm, StarCraft 2, and more.

Congratulations Haley Quast

She submitted an essay on what the USA Flag means to her and was selected as a winner by the Fleet Reserve Association Education Resource. FRA Education Foundation sponsors a generous scholarship program that helps deserving students reach their educational goals. Haley was presented an award to be selected as a winner in the writing contest.

School Closures/Delays will be posted on our district’s Website at www.ksd.org, local television and radio stations, Facebook and Twitter and through text/phone alerts by 6:00 a.m. In the event the weather does not improve, a decision may be made to go from a delay to a closure. Continue to monitor the radio, TV or website until 6:45 a.m. when a final decision will be made.
